GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. The maximum length of the paper is between 20,000 and 21,000 characters.

2. The text should be written in Times New Roman 12 pt. 1,5 spaced lines.

3. Authors have to prepare paper according to the given below standards (manuscripts which do not fulfill the requirements will be rejected).

4. Obligatory structure of the paper includes: introduction, literature studies, methodology, research results, conclusions, references.

5. References and bibliography have to be prepared in APA style (American Psychological Association 6th edition http://www.apastyle.org/).

6. Bibliography should include minimum 10 references to articles form Web of Science.

7. The author must check all the articles that are included in the bibliography whether the articles cited have DOI numbers. (http://www.crossref.org/guestquery/)
The names of authors
e-mail of authors
Affiliation

Title of the paper

JEL: (available at: http://www.aeaweb.org/jel/jel_class_system.php#A)

Keywords: max. 5 words or phrases

Abstract (max. 300 words)

Research background:

Purpose of the article:

Methodology:

Practical implication:

Research limitations:

Findings:
Introduction (motivation for writing the paper, objectives of the article, structure of the paper/research)

Literature studies (research background on the basis of international review of the literature; references to the previous considerations and research)

Methodology (detailed description of used methods, research problems and hypothesis with adequate justification)

Research results (the result of the conducted research)

Conclusions (summary of the article, practical implication, research limitation, directions of further research)

References (arranged alphabetically)

DRAWINGS, TABLES, GRAPHS AND CHARTS

Table 1. Name

| | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Source:

Figure 1. Name

Source: