

1. Course number and name

RB-S1-19-IOB-2B, German Language II (A1+)

2. Credits and contact hours*

2 ECTS, classes: 30 hours

3. Instructor's or course coordinator's name

Gabriela Szewiola MSc

4. Text book, title, author, and year

- Deutsch für Profis, Construction industry, LektorKlett
- Menschen A1, Hueber
- Studio d A2, Cormelsen
- www.dw.com

a. other supplemental materials

5. Specific course information

a. brief description of the content of the course (catalog description)

Classes:

In accordance with CEFR A1 level, elementary grammatical structures, vocabulary and functional phrases enabling a student to communicate in both spoken and written language, and use oral and written forms of communication on a very basic level in order to obtain and process information from various sources concerning familiar everyday subjects, and, to a very limited extent, topics connected with the field of study; preparation for simple talks and written assignments; developing soft skills in the foreign language. (part 2/4)

b. prerequisites or co-requisites achieving learning outcomes assigned for the 1st semester of German classes

c. indicate whether a required, elective, or selected elective (as per Table 5-1) course in the program

Required.

6. Specific goals for the course

a. specific outcomes of instruction, ex. The student will be able to explain the significance of current research about a particular topic

A student can:

- use basic grammatical structures, phrasing and vocabulary, allowing them to communicate at a basic level in a narrow range of specific needs in selected routine situations (part 2/4)
- understand spoken or written basic information in simple language forms, and recognize familiar words, phrases and proper names (part 2/4)
- write down a short note or several basic pieces of information concerning their age, address, family etc. for example to fill in a personal questionnaire (part 2/4)
- introduce themselves and other people in several very simple sentences prepared in advance (part 2/4)
- communicate in basic, predictable situations, in which they form and answer standard questions concerning e.g. age, address, family, job etc. on condition that the interlocutor speaks slowly and clearly, using simple structures and is willing to help (part 2/4)

b. explicitly indicate which of the student outcomes listed in Criterion 3 or any other outcomes are addressed by the course.

K1A_U13, K1A_K03

7. Brief list of topics to be covered

1. My district / my neighbourhood – infrastructure, residents' needs, optimal solutions
2. Problems in a hotel – complaints, failures, asking for help, solving problems
3. Arrangements - cancelling meetings, changing schedules – using time expressions
4. Plans for the future and career planning – work placement, internship, staying abroad, holidays
5. Construction tools and their application
6. An architect profile, their style and creation
7. High-rise buildings – technical details and descriptions
8. Modern technical devices – students' presentations
9. Types of buildings – technical details
10. Building a house – planning; investor's and construction company's responsibilities
11. Laying foundations – types and methods
12. Construction materials – types, application, advantages and disadvantages

*- Consultations were not included in the contact hours

 -per semester