

Call for presentations International Doctoral Seminars

May 14th, 2026, 16.00-18.00 (CEST)

The Doctoral School of Wrocław University of Economics and Business (WUEB) is pleased to invite you to join the discussion in a series of International Doctoral Seminars which will be held online.

The seminar is a part of celebrating the European Doctoral Day — a day to highlight the vital role of doctoral education and the impact of doctoral graduates as key agents of innovation. A day to recognize their role in helping society navigate a rapidly changing world and in shaping Europe's scientific, economic, industrial, and technological future.

Objectives:

- presentation of doctoral students' research;
- creating an international forum for discussion between doctoral students and established academics;
- exchange of research experience.

Presentations and discussion:

- a discussant is assigned to each presentation in order to increase the value for presenters, encourage greater interaction among participants, and introduce young researchers to the role of reviewers.

Basic features:

- disciplines: economics and finance, management, and related topics;
- up to 3 presentations by doctoral students;
- held online via MS Teams;
- 15 minutes for presentation + 10 minutes for discussion;
- language of the meeting: English;
- each presenter and discussant will be provided with a certificate of attendance.

Important dates:

- April, 10th 2026 – deadline for submitting proposals for presentation using the form;
- April, 10th 2026 – deadline for indicating the readiness to act as a discussant using the form;
- April, 14th 2026 – selected authors will be notified;
- April, 24th 2026 – deadline for submitting extended abstracts (5 pages) by selected authors;
- April, 26th 2026 – selected discussants will be notified.

Please fill in the form:

<https://tiny.pl/jbkx8x3zw>

✉ Email: renata.majewska@ue.wroc.pl