1. The Silesian edition of the 3MT® Competition is organized in Gliwice.
2. The 3MT® competition consists of three stages:
 - a. Stage I: Pre-selection - submissions of participants of film materials with a recording of a 3-minute presentation in English about the scientific work conducted as part of the PhD thesis and its significance for society made with a camera, tablet or camera with a note of personal data and institution and sent by e-mail to the following address : konkurs3mt@polsl.pl

- b. Stage 2: Selection
 - c. Stage 3: The Final
- 3. Detailed locations and dates of the individual stages will be announced on the website.
 - 4. The Participants may send slides illustrating the Competition speeches by e-mail to the address provided by the Organizers in communication with the Competition Participants within 7 days before the beginning of Stage II and III.

Presentations by Participants

- 4.
- 1. The 3MT® competition consists of presenting in the form of a film in Stage I and “live” in stages II and III, in front of the audience and the Jury, a presentation about the scientific work conducted and its significance for society, within three minutes.
- 2. The presentation must be presented in English.
- 3. The evaluation criteria for each speech will be:
 - a. - understanding – the degree to which the presentation allows the audience to understand the research:
 - a clear definition of the nature and purpose of the research.
 - communicating the issues most relevant to the topic of research.
 - a logical composition of a coherent statement.
 - b. - engagement – attracting interest among recipients:
 - avoidance of excessive simplification of the subject of research.
 - showing the audience their own enthusiasm and commitment to the conducted research.
 - the degree to which the speech encouraged the audience to become more familiar with the topic.
 - c. - communication style – a language of presentation adequate for a wide, diverse audience:
 - maintaining eye contact, moderating the voice, maintaining a constant pace and self-confidence.
 - avoiding scientific jargon, clarifying incomprehensible terminology, and providing an appropriate scientific background to effectively illustrate the essence of research.
 - brevity, readability, and brightness of the slide displayed during the presentation. The extent to which it helped or hindered the reception of the presentation.
 - time management.
- 4. The criteria for pre-selection will not be the technical quality of the recording of the film material.
- 5. Each of the above criteria will be assessed on a scale of 1 to 10 points. Such assessment will be used in the second and third stages of the 3MT® Competition. The Jury can only award full points by entering them in the voting card. Participants are not allowed to view their card after completing it by members of the Jury.
- 6. The speech should be addressed to a wide audience.
- 7. The Participant may display a single static slide prepared in .ppt or .jpg format, which should be sent to the Organizer in a form and time consistent with the provisions of §3. Point 4. Of these Regulations. Slide transitions, animations, or any "displacement" are not allowed. The slide must be displayed from the start of the speech until the end of the speech.
- 8. The Participant may not use additional electronic media such as audio and video files.

9. The Participant may not use additional props, such as costumes, musical instruments, laboratory equipment, and also cannot read quotes from a card or other source, except for the displayed slide.
10. The presentation given by the Participant may not last longer than 3 minutes. A Participant exceeding 3 minutes is immediately and irrevocably disqualified.
11. The presentation given by the Participant may not be in the form of a poem or song.
12. The Participant must give a presentation in the 2nd and 3rd stages standing on stage.
13. The start of the presentation time countdown occurs when the Participant begins his presentation by movement or speech.
14. The decision of the Jury is final.
15. The 3MT® competition can be recorded, transmitted, or retransmitted by the media. Participants of the 3MT® Contest give their consent to this free of charge.
16. Winners of the 3MT® Competition are obliged to correct the final translation of the presentation prepared by the Organizers within 14 days of receiving the material.
