Z1-KSZJK

Duties and Competencies of the Rector's Representative for the Education Quality Assurance System

1. The Rector's Representative for the Education Quality Assurance System is appointed and dismissed by the Rector. The Representative is appointed for the term of office of the University's single-member bodies.
2. The duties of the Rector's Representative for the Education Quality Assurance System include, in particular:
   1) coordinating and integrating all activities aimed at improving and developing the Education Quality Assurance System at the Silesian University of Technology,
   2) co-ordinating tasks relating to the implementation, monitoring and improvement of the quality of education,
   3) representing the Silesian University of Technology externally,
   4) cooperating with other educational centres and institutions involved in the quality of education,
   5) monitoring the up-to-date status of, and making amendments to, documents relating to the Education Quality Assurance System,
   6) planning and supervising the conduct of the university's internal audits,
   7) supervising the implementation and verifying the effectiveness of corrective and preventive actions taken,
   8) conducting a review of the functioning of the Quality Assurance System at the University.